RESOURCE LIST

Please note that the Veterinary Cancer Society has NO affiliation with any of the following organizations and does not endorse them in any way. We share this list simply to provide options that pet owners may wish to pursue. We encourage you to do your own background check on these organizations.

Pet Cancer Care Consulting: https://petcancercareconsulting.com/
Pet Cancer Care Consulting is an innovative teleconsulting service in which boarded vet oncologists do video consults with the family vet and pet owner together to give personalized responses and needed information to make an informed decision on next steps and treatments. Visit the website to learn how this consulting service works in cooperation with your own family veterinarian.

Grief Counseling Information/Navigating Your Loss: https://online.fliphtml5.com/zqoye/eeze/
As a grief coach, Dr. Birgitte Tan (a longtime VCS member and life-long pet owner, and a veterinarian oncologist) provides this booklet as her gift to help you navigate your loss, have some of your questions answered, so that you feel heard and find some peace of mind.

The Magic Bullet Fund: https://themagicbulletfund.org/apply/
Assistance is for cancer treatment including surgery or chemotherapy only. The fund operates only in the U.S. and does not raise donations for experimental treatment or clinical trials. The fund does not provide assistance for other conditions, for treatment that has already been done, for cancer treatment after the first course of treatment has failed, for palliative care, or for euthanasia.

The Riedel & Cody Fund/Waggle: https://www.waggle.org/sponsor-page/f1794055449ff5cbf2c0a7a4
The Riedel & Cody Fund is a community of caregivers that provides support for people whose beloved pets are suffering with cancer. Our mission is to provide funding for cancer treatments to owners who would not otherwise be able to pay for their pet's care. Generally we fund people who are disabled, retired, without family support or in the military. Animals who are funded must have a good prognosis for recovery and quality of life.

The Onyx & Breezy Foundation: http://www.onyxandbreezy.org/
A large national organization that helps with a variety of funding and support to animal-based issues. They also have a separate Tuxie Fund (donations accepted via PayPal) where proceeds will be distributed to assist cancer related research and treatments.

The Brown Dog Foundation: http://www.browndogfoundation.org/
Brown Dog Foundation is a 501c3 public charity that provides funding to families who find themselves with a sick pet that would likely respond to treatment, but due to an unforeseen circumstance, there is not enough money immediately available to make it happen.

Emma's Foundation for Canine Cancer: http://emmasfoundationforcaninecancer.org/index.php
Emma's Foundation for Canine Cancer will work to heighten canine cancer awareness, provide resources and to provide financial funding to pet owners who do not have the financial ability to pay for the canine cancer treatment for their pet. The focus is on sparing or prolonging the life of canine friends by assisting with financial support.

Land of Pure Gold: http://grants.landofpuregold.com/
A site designated to help Golden Retrievers who have been diagnosed with cancer. Offers $1000 grants for cancer treatment for working dogs throughout the U.S. and Canada. Must be full-time working dog partner in areas of assistance, detection, search & rescue, law enforcement, military or animal-assisted therapy.

STARelief: http://starelief.org/
An organization that provides medical care, temporary homes, food and emergency shelter to pets whose caretakers are struggling with financial hardship.

The Mosby Foundation: http://themosbyfoundation.org/
The foundation assists in the care of critically sick, injured, abused and neglected dogs through financial support and public education.

Paws for a Cure: http://www.paws4acure.org/askforhelp.php
Provides funding for non-routine veterinary financial assistance for dogs and cats.

The Perseus Foundation: https://www.theperseusfoundation.info/
Support for pets diagnosed with cancer.

The Pet Fund: https://www.thepetfund.com/
The Pet Fund works only on non-basic, non-urgent cancer care.

Fight K9 Cancer: http://www.fightk9cancer.org/
Nonprofit foundation helping families who can't afford the cancer treatment for their pet & canine cancer research.

The Acme Foundation: http://www.acmefoundation.org/services
As funds are available and requests are made within the foundation's guideline limits, the Acme Foundation will provide monetary support to qualified low income senior citizens and the disabled in Lake County, California for the treatment of their seriously ill cats and dogs.

Hermangio: https://www.hemangio.com/
Your dedicated partner in the battle against hemangiosarcoma in dogs. We offer a wide range of essential resources, including detailed information about the disease and a caring support community. Most importantly, we provide financial aid and guidance to pet owners facing the challenging journey of hemangiosarcoma diagnosis and treatment, ensuring your beloved companions receive the care they need.

Organizations that have certain restrictions for the funding they provide:

Fetch A Cure: http://www.fetchacure.org/companions-in-crisis/
Their Companions in Crisis fund helps assist for families pay for life-saving treatments for their pets who have been diagnosed with cancer. It's all about giving the gift of time with a beloved pet - however only serves the states of Virginia, Maryland, and the District of Columbia, and pets who have a confirmed diagnosis of cancer.

Frankie's Friends: http://www.frankiesfriends.org/#welcome
Finding cures and saving pets with life threatening illnesses for patients of Blue Pearl Clinics.

Assistance Dog Partners: https://www.iaadp.org/iaadp-membership-benefits-vcp.html
For emergency veterinary care for service dogs only and must be contacted by your vet. International Association of Assistance Dog Partners (IAADP) has established an emergency veterinary care fund to help IAADP Partner Members in the USA when their partnership is threatened by the need for high cost veterinary intervention beyond their ability to pay. The goal is to "Save a Partnership.

Dylan's Heart: www.dylanshearts.com
Must be requested through your attending veterinarian for a life-threatening or critical injury or illness with a favorable outcome with care and the owner must be on a form of government aid.

The Golden Retriever Foundation: https://www.goldenretrieverfoundation.org/
The Zeke Cancer Research Fund - donations support research.

Educational & research-based organizations:

The National Canine Cancer Foundation: http://wearethecure.org/
Funds are used in eliminating cancer as a major health problem in dogs through education, outreach and research to save lives through prevention, finding cures, better treatments, more accurate cost-effective diagnostic methods in dealing with cancer and diminishing dogs suffering from cancer.

Morris Animal Foundation: https://www.morrisanimalfoundation.org/apply
A global leader in supporting scientific research that advances veterinary medicine.

The Animal Cancer Foundation: http://www.acfoundation.org/
This organization is dedicated to finding a cure for cancer by funding research and increasing public awareness of comparative oncology in pets and people.

The Veterinary Cancer Society: http://www.vetcancersociety.org

ACVIM: https://www.acvim.org/
American College of Veterinary Internal Medicine

ACVR: http://www.acvr.org
American College of Veterinary Radiology

ACVS: http://www.acvs.org
American College of Veterinary Surgeons

ACVP: http://www.acvo.org
American College of Veterinary Pathologists

VSSO: http://www.vsso.org
Veterinary Society of Surgical Oncology

AVMA Clinical Trials Database: https://ebusiness.avma.org/aahsd/study_search.aspx